About Tinnitus UK

Tinnitus UK, formerly known as the British Tinnitus Association since 1979, is the only charity in the UK dedicated solely to addressing tinnitus-related issues and is well respected world-wide. In early 2023, the charity underwent a rebranding initiative, relaunching under the new name Tinnitus UK. This new name puts tinnitus first, because taking on tinnitus is the main reason we're here. Becoming Tinnitus UK is helping us to reach more people with tinnitus, be more visible and raise more awareness of this condition which can have a significant impact on people's quality of life.

Our purpose first and foremost is to support approximately 7 million people in the UK living with the condition, alongside supporting research to achieve our mission to drive progress towards a cure. Our unique telephone, and web-based chat lines within our Support Services have now helped hundreds of thousands of people across the UK and beyond find great comfort from the assistance of our dedicated staff. Concurrently, following our rebrand, we revamped our website and introduced Axel, the world's first free tinnitus chatbot. These enhancements facilitate easier access to information round-the-clock, thereby ensuring timely support. Complementing these technological advancements are our highly skilled staff and volunteers, who are now equipped to handle an increased volume of calls and webchats.

The prevalence of tinnitus in the UK has risen to 1 in 7 individuals, a notable increase from 1 in 8, particularly exacerbated by the pandemic. Moreover, as tinnitus emerges as a symptom of long Covid, the demand for our Support Services has surged significantly, reflecting a heightened need for our assistance.

As a research-led charity, Tinnitus UK empowers and spurs on the global scientific community to help us understand tinnitus, discover new ways to treat it and ultimately find a cure. We work with medical professionals to ensure people with tinnitus get the right information and advice. We also build awareness with government bodies and the public to raise funds and provide support. It is our mission to drive progress towards a cure and deliver excellent support to help people living with tinnitus, and our strategic goals are focused on what it will take to achieve this.

However, we need to do more. In order to address this, the Board recently commissioned an Advisory report across the charity, a pivotal step in driving the charity forward for the future to achieve significant growth and impact through setting ambitious goals and objectives.

To realise this vision, we are now actively seeking a visionary and strategic CEO who can build upon this review to shape our future direction, provide strong leadership, possess a forward-thinking mindset, and adeptly navigate challenges whilst inspiring our team. This pivotal role, at a crucial time for Tinnitus UK, presents an opportunity to drive our charity towards remarkable expansion and positively influence the lives of individuals impacted by our cause.

We want; "A world where no one suffers from tinnitus."

This is a powerful statement and one which we believe is achievable. If you are driven by a passion for effecting change and can guide the trajectory of our charity towards new heights, we extend a warm invitation for you to join us in fulfilling our mission.

Thank you.

Lynne Gillon

Job Summary

Tinnitus UK (TUK) is recruiting for an exceptional Chief Executive to join us at a crucial time in the charity's growth.

TUK is recognized as the UK's leading and only charity, 100% dedicated to supporting Tinnitus sufferers. It enables research into finding a cure for this condition, which impacts 1 in 7 people in the UK. The charity is recognised worldwide as being the leader in this field.

However, TUK needs a reboot. The strategic overhaul of the organisation in 2020 and rebrand subsequently to 'Tinnitus UK,' marked a significant and exciting advancement for the charity after 44 years of operation. Amidst the repercussions of the pandemic and notable management changes, the charity has encountered several challenges. Consequently, the board has initiated a thorough review encompassing; organisational structure, strategic direction, fundraising activities, and support service provisions. With this review to be finalised soon, we are now in search of a dynamic leader, capable of revitalising TUK's operational capabilities, rebuilding a new team, and propelling us back towards a growth trajectory.

You will be a strategic thinker, with strong leadership skills, able to hire, train and inspire a team. You will be an excellent communicator, able to operate at senior levels in government, trusts, health professionals and be comfortable with media and medical professionals alike. This is an opportunity to lead the charity to exceptional growth and have a significant and positive impact on sufferers.

We are looking for someone with energy and passion for our cause. The successful candidate will recognise the need to be in our Sheffield office at least two days a week to build the right esprit de corps amongst the team, and to provide the necessary direct support for them. It is important that this person can work effectively unilaterally but more importantly can do so as part of a team.

Job Purpose

Responsible for leading, adapting and responding to the changing needs of TUK, to significantly grow the charities income stream, shaping and influencing the direction of the charity at strategic and operational levels.
