

PRACTICE LEADER BIODIVERSITY

APRIL 2025

ABOUT WWF

All around the world, people are waking up to the deepening crisis of nature loss. We're experiencing a growing realization that nature is our life-support system and that no one will be spared from the impacts of its loss.

Here at WWF, an independent conservation organization active in nearly 100 countries, we are working to sustain the natural world for the benefit of people and wildlife.

Working with many others – from individuals and communities to business and government – WWF urgently seeks to protect and restore natural habitats, stop the mass extinction of wildlife, and make the way we produce and consume sustainable.

THE ROLE

ROLE:	Practice Leader Biodiversity
LOCATION:	Flexible/WWF International Hubs
SALARY:	Competitive

MISSION OF THE DEPARTMENT

The Biodiversity Practice aims to unite WWF Offices and other WWF Practices around the delivery of the Biodiversity Practice strategy and provide deep and integrated technical expertise to the Network as and when required. The Biodiversity Practice will provide leadership for WWF Network's strategic efforts to ensure thriving biodiversity by 2030 and will work with other Practices and departments in the Conservation Division as well as across the Network to halt the major drivers of biodiversity loss.

The Biodiversity Practice, comprises the biomes of Forest, Freshwater, Oceans and Wildlife and will provide technical support to the Network and Country Offices in relation to their Biodiversity strategies and in alignment with the Roadmap 2030 goals and focus on delivery of conservation impact.

MAJOR FUNCTIONS

The Biodiversity Practice Leader position will provide inspiring leadership, ambition and vision for the development and delivery of the integrated strategy for Biodiversity Practice. The practice has merged work for three biomes - forests, freshwater and oceans - and wildlife to provide integrated technical expertise for the WWF Network aimed at implementing both the Global Biodiversity Framework and the Roadmap 2030.

The role manages the Senior Director Forest, Senior Director Freshwater, Senior Director Oceans and the Senior Director Wildlife and their respective teams.
