COUNTRY DIRECTOR, GHANA

March 2026

RIGHT TO PLAY
PROTECT. EDUCATE. EMPOWER.

ABOUT RIGHT TO PLAY

Right To Play protects, educates, and empowers children to rise above adversity using the power of play. For 25 years, we have been a global leader in helping children learn and improve their well-being through play. We reach millions of children each year in 14 countries in Africa, Asia, the Middle East, and Indigenous communities in Canada, helping them to stay in school and learn, overcome prejudice, heal from trauma, and develop the skills they need to thrive. We do this by harnessing play, one of the most fundamental forces in a child's life, to teach children the critical skills they need to dismantle barriers and embrace opportunities, in learning and in life.

CANDIDATE PROFILE

Right To Play are seeking an experienced leader who will be able to drive and develop all the functions of the country programme. There have been significant changes over recent times with programmes finishing, so you will need to have excellent change management skills, being able to build a coherent vision for the programmes. You will need to be an excellent team leader – to create stability and security for the staff.

You will need highly developed interpersonal and advocacy skills to be able to represent Right To Play locally to government bodies and other appropriate organisations. As well as having strong programmatic experience, you will need to have a strong understanding of the various operation functions (HR, Finance, Logistics etc.) and be able to drive forward improvements.

You will ideally have already been in a country leadership role, but those looking for a first Country Director role will also be considered should you have the right level of experience and abilities. A background in education is highly desirable although not essential – however, you will need to be passionate about children’s play and play based learning. This is an exciting opportunity for the right individual to take the reins and developing a high performing team.
